Frank Capra's

It's a wonderful life

(USA Release: 1946; 130 mins.)

On November 25, 2009 at 3:00 p.m.
at the American Center, 38A, J.L. Nehru Rd.

Director: Frank Capra; Starring : James Stewart, Donna Reed, Lionel Barrymore, Thomas Mitchell

Synopsis: A good but slightly ineffectual man tries to off himself after an error that really wasn't his fault. In Christmas Carol fashion, his crusty-but-lovable guardian angel shows up to give him a tour of the world without his presence, and it isn't a pretty place. Moral courage, small-town American life, civic cooperation, and family love are glorified; corporate greed and self-involvement are vilified; at the climax, a blanket of snow like spun sugar makes everything pure and clean like redemption itself.

Register at : Tel 3984 6397 / sennx@state.gov before November 20, 2009.

NO names will be accepted after November 20, 2009. Bags and cameras are NOT allowed inside the auditorium of American Center. We regret any inconveniences caused.
